U.S. DISTRICT COURT
CR-04-30034-MAP

DEFENDANT'S PRO SE MOTION THAT THE COURT
TRANSMIT CERTAIN DOCUMENTS TO NEW APPOINTED COUNSEL

Defendant requests that the court transmit to new appointed counsel, or new proposed counsel, (1) the most recently revised version of the Presentence Report and (2) the Pro Se Notice of Appeal, Request for Appointment of New Appellate Counsel, and Request for Leave to Proceed on Appeal In Forma Pauperis (including the grounds upon which defendant wishes to appeal).

This is necessary so that new appointed counsel will have some idea of what the case is about.

Also, defendant wants to be certain that his appellate issues are in the hands of a qualified attorney and it is on record what exactly that he wishes to appeal on.

Defendant is concerned that he might wind up in New Mexico or some other remote realm of the Federal Gulag, held incommunicado. It has happened to him previously where he was disallowed any attorney contact by writing or telephone, in retaliation for his legal activism.
